About Myself UK Dance

myselfdance.com | @myselfdance

All-female Hip-Hop dance company, Myself UK Dance, was founded in 2008 by creative artist Kloé Dean to challenge the male-dominated Hip-Hop scene by inspiring not only females but also wider society. The collective promotes empowerment, ambition, individuality and self-worth through Hip-Hop dance and the slogan 'I Love Myself'.

Determined to challenge the male-dominated Hip Hop scene, Kloé has brought together a group of strong female dancers. An idea which began with just a few young women in a room has since grown to become an empowering company of performers.

About East London Dance

eastlondondance.org | @EastLondonDance

East London Dance brings dance to people and people to dance. They produce ambitious performances that draw wide audiences alongside projects to get all ages dancing.

Uncovering diverse talent, they train young professionals and develop their careers, enabling them to shape their own futures.

East London Dance attracts world-class choreographers and artists to work with them and influences the dance world beyond their doorstep through inspired connections and wide-ranging collaborations.
